

GIRL GOES TO JAIL RATHER THAN GIVE UP YOUNG SWEETHEART

"I'd Go Without Eating for Him," Marcel Brust, Sixteen, Declares in Court.

Sixteen-year-old Marcel Brust of North Bergen stood before Recorder Medina in Union Hill, N. J., and defied her parents or any one else to stifle her love for Lawrence Rittenmeier, eighteen, also of North Bergen.

Mr. and Mrs. Brust charged Marcel with being incorrigible because she accepted the attentions of Lawrence, meeting him clandestinely or at any time and anywhere opportunity offered. The Recorder told her, after hearing the story yesterday, if she persisted in disobeying her parents she might have to go to jail. The suggestion amused Marcel, who said:

"I'd go anywhere for him. I don't know whether he'd go to jail for me or not, but he said he would and I believe him. No; I am going to continue to meet Lawrence."

Asked how long she had known the youth, she said:

"A long, long time. We went to school together. I have received about 500 letters from him. In jail I can't see him, but being out of jail and not being able to see him would be more than I could stand. As it is now, it is

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.—Advt.

worse than in jail. I can't sleep at night." "You have been vaccinated with the real stuff," commented the Recorder. "You certainly have had." Turning to the girl's parents, he suggested that they send Marcel to Europe to overcome her love for Lawrence.

"They both seem madly in love," he continued, "and it looks to me like a hopeless proposition." Mr. and Mrs. Brust were not in sympathy with the suggestion of European trip, and Marcel, smiling, but more defiant than ever, was led away to jail.

ACCUSED OF THEFT, CHILD KILLS HERSELF

Girl of Fourteen Takes Poison After Sister Declares She Took Dime From Purse.

Fourteen-year-old Margaret O'Toole is dead at her home, No. 143 Jackson Street, Paterson, N. J., of poison she took after her nineteen-year-old sister, Ella, accused her of taking ten cents from a purse yesterday afternoon.

The child fled from the house after the accusation and wandered about for two hours. In the evening she bought a nickel's worth of poison and took it as she sat on the steps of St. Joseph's Hospital. Then she rushed into that institution, crying she had swallowed acid.

Half an hour later she died while doctors were working over her. The elder sister said she had not intended seriously to accuse Margaret of taking the dime.

TAFT FAVORS SINGLE TERM.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 9.—A Presidential term of six or seven years with ineffectuality for re-election was advocated by former President William H. Taft in addressing the graduating class of the Connecticut Literary Institution at Simsbury, Conn.

Mr. Taft maintained that a President can shape and carry out in six or seven years any policies to which he may be pledged.

SLEEPER FELL IN RIVER.

Peter Wolf, fifty, living at No. 210 Franklin Street, Williamsburg, went to sleep last night at the foot of Quay Street on the Williamsburg docks. At daybreak he fell in the river. In his fall he struck the guard of the tug Charles E. McNeill and was unconscious when he hit the water.

Michael McGrath, engineer of the tug, heard the splash and jumped overboard after the drowning man. Policeman Birmingham of the Greenpoint Police Station dragged Wolf out with a hook and the help of McGrath. Then he helped McGrath out. Wolf was sent to the Williamsburg Hospital. His left leg was broken.

MAIDEN RECLUSE OF 73 STRANGLER IN ATTACK

Miss Jane Aker Found Dead in Remote Home in New Jersey, With Cap as Clue to Slayer.

Miss Jane Aker, seventy-three years old, who lived alone in a remote house near Farmingdale, N. J., was found strangled to death there yesterday.

The old woman had not been seen for nearly a week, so the neighbors yesterday afternoon went to her house. They found her lying on a couch covered with bed clothing. Township Physician William Prout discovered marks upon her throat that revealed the manner of her death, which, he thought, probably occurred Friday or Saturday.

An autopsy revealed that an attempt to assault the aged recluse had been made before her death. In searching the house, county detectives found under a bed a peculiar cap, which was identified as one worn by a Polish laborer working in the neighborhood. Investigation showed this man suddenly left his haunts last Thursday saying he was going to Southern New Jersey.

NO GUNS ON LUSITANIA, NEW WITNESS ASSERTS

C. Cheever Hardwick, Passenger Who Inspected Ship on Fatal Trip, Denies She Was Armed.

A positive denial that the Lusitania was armed is made by C. Cheever Hardwick of the face importing firm of Burr & Hardwick, who was on the ship when she was torpedoed. At his home, No. 234 Oakwood Avenue, Orange, N. J., Mr. Hardwick said today:

"It was my sixty-first voyage across the Atlantic, and most of these voyages had been made on board either the Lusitania or the Mauretania. Therefore I knew the officers and stewards of these vessels very well. I knew them so well that I was the donor of the cup for which their crews competed yearly, known as the Hardwick Cup. I state these things to show how familiar I was with the steamships and the men on board."

"After we left this port I went through the Lusitania several times to make certain that guns had not been mounted since leaving United States waters. There was no sign of a gun on board. I am as certain that the Lusitania did not carry a gun of any kind as I am of anything else in life."

SAME AUTO KILLS 2 BOYS WITHIN FOUR MONTHS

Chauffeur in Charge First Time, but Owner's Brother Last Night, It Is Said.

In crossing Montrose Avenue near Lorimer Street, Brooklyn, last night Charles Rauch, fourteen years, of 357 Marcy Avenue, was mortally injured by an automobile owned by Morris Gluck, a table manufacturer, of No. 154 Lee Avenue.

George Gluck, nineteen years old, a brother of the manufacturer, was operating the car, said the chauffeur, Alexander Harris, who was with him. The machine also contained Alfred Gluck, another brother.

After the accident, the Glucks, panic-stricken, ran home, leaving the chauffeur with the car. Patrolman Martin had the injured boy taken to the Williamsburg Hospital, where he died. Detectives found the brothers at their home, and Coroner Wagner held George Gluck in $5,000 on a manslaughter charge.

The police say the same auto killed Herbert Rothman, nine years, of No. 247 Penn Street, four months ago. The chauffeur was driving the car at that time and George Gluck sat beside him.

MAYO TO BE VICE ADMIRAL.

He Demanded Salute to Flag From Dictator Huerta.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Rear Admiral Henry T. Mayo has been selected by Secretary Daniels for the position of First Vice Admiral, provided for by Congress. He will be assigned to the Atlantic Fleet, under Admiral Fletcher. Admiral Mayo became conspicuous last spring when he demanded from Huerta, then President of Mexico, a salute to the American flag, following indignities to American marines at Tampico. He formerly served as Secretary Daniels' aide for personnel, and is at present in command of the First Division of the Atlantic Fleet.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE DEAF

If you are losing your hearing—if you are troubled with buzzing and ringing in the ears—if you find that your nostrils are clogged—if you have given up hopes of finding relief, just go to Riker & Hegeman, or any other drug store, and purchase one ounce of Fluid Enserol. Mix this with one pint of warm water. Put two drops in the affected ear every night. Put one tablespoonful in a fourth of a glass of warm water and gargle throat and snuff up nose night and morning. Keep this up for a few weeks and test your hearing and you will be pleased to note the improvement. You will also, no doubt, discover that your catarrh has disappeared and head noises gone.—Advt.

A Seeming Fault Is a Vital Virtue

The temperature of your stomach is 100° Fahrenheit. The fats in the foods you eat must become fluid at a lower temperature than 100° Fahrenheit or stay a fermenting mass. Most animal fats need from 106° to 112° of heat to make them fluid.

SAWTAY

is a pure water-white oil at 85° and a plastic snow-white butter when it is colder. If your jar of SAWTAY becomes fluid, keep in mind that phase is its vital virtue.

SAWTAY is easier to digest than the finest cow-butter and gives you 2½ times the albumins, such as white of egg, lean meat, etc., and 2½ times the carbohydrates of sugar, etc. SAWTAY is a food, not merely a fat.

SAWTAY Salad Dressing

1 egg yolk, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 teaspoon flour, ½ teaspoon dry mustard, 1 tablespoon SAWTAY, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 3 tablespoons water, salt and paprika to taste. Mix dry ingredients together, add them to the yolk and beat well, then add SAWTAY, vinegar and water. Place directly over fire and cook until it comes to boiling point, stirring constantly, then remove and add two tablespoons milk or cream.

For Cream Soups, Gravies and Cream Sauces

you will find the following a good foundation: 2 tablespoons SAWTAY. Heat until melted, then add two heaping tablespoons flour, stir well and add two cups milk, salt and paprika to taste. Let simmer until it thickens, stirring continually.

Sawtay is Economical—Use Over and Over and One-Fifth Less.
